

User Info

The User Info widget can be handy for admins, especially when logging in as other individuals. It presents the display name, any classes and email address of the logged in user.

As with several of the other widgets, this widget is of limited use to most staff and students. It's worth considering hiding it in the Groups and Policies app for all but admins as this will reduce the number of widgets in the widget tray.